

I am filing comments opposing the Consumer Bankers Association's petition to weaken Indiana's law in protecting consumers' rights and interests in telephone privacy. Our state law has protected us from unwanted solicitations/phone calls and I am offended by the Consumer Bankers Association's action/petition to force the unwanted phone calls on us.